

We are so pleased that you can join us for the 2024 BMW Championship. As a Bank of Colorado guest, you will be treated to a premium experience at Castle Pines Golf Club. To help you prepare for your time at the BMW Championship, please refer to the information below.

OVERVIEW

The BMW Championship is the second of three FedExCup Playoff events. The BMW Championship will feature the top 50 golfers in the FedExCup standings. No cut will be made, so all 50 players will compete all four days. The sole beneficiary of the BMW Championship is the Evans Scholars Foundation, which provides full tuition and housing college scholarships for young caddies from limited financial means

TICKETS

Ticket Distribution Your ticket(s) will be distributed electronically via email from a Ticketmaster email address on 8/12/24 (please make sure to check your junk folder). When you get that email, click the link to accept the ticket. You will need to sign in to Ticketmaster only using existing Ticketmaster credentials or by creating a new account. Once you accept the tickets, you will be able to add them to your phone's digital wallet for easy access when you arrive on site.

For additional assistance, please see Ticketmaster's Mobile Ticket Guide here.

Hospitality Tickets: Your hospitality ticket allows you access into the grounds as well as the specific venue. Tickets will only provide access into the venue listed. You will not be able to gain entry into a different venue. There will be no re-entry into the tournament grounds.

DAY OF: WHAT TO EXPECT

Tournament Entry

Upon arrival to the BMW Championship, you will go through a touchless security screening and have your tickets scanned. For ease of scanning, please save the tickets to your wallet.

Venue Entry

Once you gain entry into the BMW Championship, you will be able to make your way to your host company's hospitality venue. You can refer to the attached course map and the signage on property to find the venue. Company names are listed on the entrance boards and on the individual unit. Once you arrive at your company's venue, you will go through an additional entry process. You will get your ticket scanned once more and will receive a wristband. The wristband will allow for re-entry into the venue if you would like to walk the course and come back to the venue.
